

Do You Hear Him?

“So as the Holy Spirit says: ‘Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as you did in the rebellion, during the time of testing in the wilderness...’” (Hebrews 3:7-8)

God has spoken to the hearts of His human children over the centuries inviting them back into relationship with Him. These Spirit-inspired messages came in many different forms, but the clearest came through Jesus, God’s Word in the flesh (John 1:1, 14; Hebrews 1:1-3).

Through the Holy Spirit, Jesus speaks to us today and to those around us. He accomplishes this through the Bible, through our consciences, and through Christian preachers and teachers. He is inviting all people to come home to the Father.

Yet, we must all respond. If we don’t, then our hearts harden and we end up never responding to the message of grace. Hear the message of the Holy Spirit today... that same message uttered over and over throughout time. It now comes to you and me: “Hear his voice! Don’t harden your hearts!” Respond!

A Prayer

O Father, I want to be a tender-hearted child who responds to the Holy Spirit’s word in my life. Help me to hear your voice and respond to your grace. Help me to love and understand the message of the Bible. And help me to obey my conscience, for I know that your Spirit convicts me there within my own heart.

May I turn from my sins, May I notice my vulnerabilities. Strengthen my weakness and empower me to be more like my Savior, Jesus, in whose name I pray. Amen.

Bless you all!

Scott